Discover the 9 most beautiful beaches in Valencia, Spain

By Matthieu

Lors de votre visite de Valence ne ratez surtout pas toutes les belles plages valenciennes situées à seulement quelques kilomètres du centre ville. Avec son climat méditerranéen doux, Valence est le lieu idéal pour profiter de la plage toute l'année.

Nous y avons été à deux reprises, quand on aime, on ne compte pas. Nous vous partageons, ci-dessous, nos 9 plages préférés à Valence. Vous les retrouverez toutes sur notre carte pour vous aider à les retrouver facilement.

Où se baigner à Valence ?

For swimming in Valencia, we recommend La Malva-Rosa beach, one of the closest to the center of the city and, in our opinion, the most beautiful. Don't miss this great stretch of fine sand and crystal clear waters.

Comme vous pouvez le constater sur la photo ci-dessous de notre arrivée en avion, le centre de Valence est situé à seulement quelques kilomètres d'un incroyable littoral encore un peu préservé par endroit (on vous dit où plus bas dans l'article).

Also note that from June to September the water temperature is always above 20 degrees, we even bathed in mid-October. In short, there is really a little vacation feeling all year round!

Notre carte des meilleures plages de Valence

1. La Malva-Rosa beach: the emblem of Valencia

La Malva-Rosa is the beach not to be missed during your stay in Valencia. It is one of the closest beaches to Valencia. It is located only 5 minutes by car from the city center and is easily accessible by public transportation and bicycle.

This immense sandy beach stretches for 2 kilometers and offers a breathtaking view of the Mediterranean Sea. It is an ideal beach for families, because the water is shallow. A pleasant promenade runs along the waterfront, where you will find many restaurants and bars.

We advise you to stop at El Trompo: to eat an excellent paella and moreover in front of the sea, in short, the perfect place, think of booking!

2. Las Arenas beach: the liveliest

Located right next to La Malva-Rosa beach (our number 1 beach), Las Arenas beach is also very beautiful and is the closest to Valencia. It's a livelier beach with a festive atmosphere, with numerous beach clubs dotting the coastline. The Marina

3. Patacona Beach: the family beach

Patacona Beach is a quiet beach located about 5 kilometers north of Valencia. This sandy beach is ideal for families with young children, thanks to its shallow waters and gentle waves.

The beach also has many facilities, including volleyball courts, showers and public restrooms. To get there, you can also enjoy its seaside promenade with restaurants, bars and ice cream shops.

4. El Saler Beach: the wild beach

Located in the Albufera Natural Park, El Saler beach is one of the wildest and most unspoiled beaches in Valencia.

This sandy beach stretches for several kilometers and is surrounded by lush nature and sand dunes. You will be able to enjoy a preserved natural environment and a crystal clear sea.

5. Cabanyal Beach: crystal-clear waters

La Platja del Cabanyal is located right next to the Malva-Rosa beach, and shares the same amenities. It is also one of the most popular beaches in Valencia.

As mentioned above, with its crystal clear waters and shallow depths, it is particularly suitable for families with children. The beach is also equipped with umbrellas and deck chairs.

6. Arbre del Gos: the quietest beach

L'Arbre del Gos beach is a quieter, less crowded beach than the others, located in the Albufera Natural Park. It is located about 7 kilometers south of Valencia, near the small town of El Perellonet.

This beach is ideal for those looking to avoid the crowds and enjoy a little peace and quiet.

7. La Devesa beach: for a peaceful getaway

La Devesa Beach is the most remote of Valencia's beaches, located about 10 kilometers south of the city. This beach is ideal for those looking to get away from the city and enjoy the natural beauty of the Mediterranean coast.

8. Pinedo beach: the pitoresque one

Located around 5 kilometers south of Valencia, Pinedo beach was a traditional fishermen's beach. This sandy beach next to the harbor is an ideal place to enjoy fresh fish. The beach also has public showers and toilets.

9. Port Saplatja beach: a charming little port

Port Saplatja beach, located to the north of Valencia, as its name suggests, is a beach adjacent to a port, so we recommend you go there for an afternoon stroll to see "La Petite Venise de Valencie". A picturesque and unique place, with colorful buildings and small boats that make it a hidden gem.

How to go to the beaches from the center of Valencia ?

The beaches north of the port

- On foot, after visiting the colorful Cabanal district, the Port of Valencia or the Cité des Sciences.
- By bike from the center crossing the Turia garden (about 7km)
- By metro line 5, to the Maritim Serreria terminus, then walk to the beach through the Cabanal neighborhood

The southern beaches of the Albufera reserve

- By car: 15 minutes
- By public transport: from the center of the city, 45 minutes by bus line 24

Whether you're looking for a lively beach or a quiet one, there's something for everyone in Valencia.
